

Time	Guest Name	Comment	Posted
12/16/2011 10:39	Chad	Is there a link to these maps?	Yes
12/16/2011 10:47	Robert	I heard there were several comments to put Mill Creek in the same district as Bothell. I see this plan keeps it in the 44th. What was the reasoning, as Mill Creek shares the same community interests as Bothell. Most of my neighbors I have spoken to want to be in the same district as Bothell, rather than stay in the 44th? How is this plan, then recognizing communities of interest?	Yes
12/16/2011 10:48	Chad	Thanks!	Yes
12/16/2011 10:55	Robert	I heard there were several comments to put Mill Creek in the same district as Bothell. I see this plan keeps it in the 44th. What was the reasoning, as Mill Creek shares the same community interests as Bothell. Most of my neighbors I have spoken to want to be in the same district as Bothell, rather than stay in the 44th? How is this plan, then recognizing communities of interest? Thank you, Robert Rodriguez, Mill Creek	No
12/16/2011 10:57	Sharon Woods, Marysv	Commissioners. First let me express my thanks for your work on this very important effort. I can only imagine who challenging it has been to put these maps together. With that said, I do not understand why Marysville has been split up the way it was. It makes no sense. Why can't the areas being placed in the 39th be put in the 38th and 44th? The areas being put in the 39th are so small, to me it seems most logical to put Marysville in as few districts as possible. I read testimony from even our City to that affect. I am very confused. Marysville resident (Sharon Woods)	Yes