General Information:

In the State of Washington, elections are administered at the local level by County Auditors (except King County, which has a Department of Records and Elections). These offices are available to help you with district information, registering to vote, requesting an absentee ballot, and other elections-related services. For additional information, please contact your County Auditor or the Office of the Secretary of State at 1-800-448-4881 or www.sos.wa.gov
